REFLECTING MOMENTS OF DAYS OF THE YEAR

Reflecting . . . Reflecting moments slipped by, but unheeded at the time. We, the Class of 1973, will reflect on the many memories we have had in our high school past. We'll remember the teachers, the students, and the many little pranks, quarrels, and pleasures we've shared at South Putnam.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

SPORTS . . . 48

As much as we enjoy remembering the past, we can't live the past—we must live the present and think of the future. As we proceed through the last year of our stay here at South Putnam. We are thinking of the future in store for us outside these school walls. And when the future becomes the present we'll raise our heads high to accept it with a great deal of hope and optimism.

of Theatrical Enjoyment

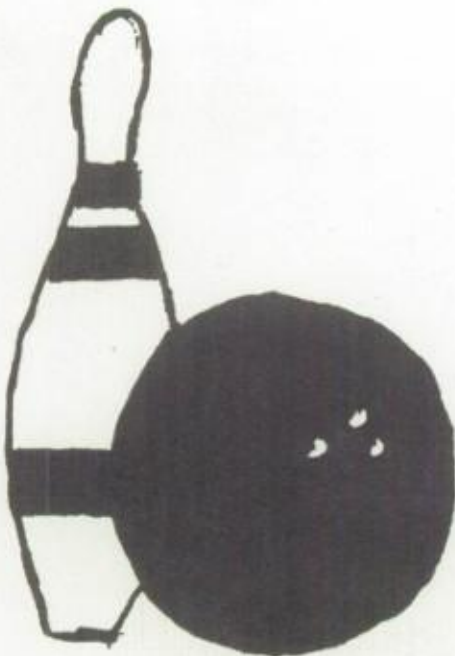

The South Putnam Thespian Troupe has supplied the community with many hours of theatrical enjoyment. Among the many productions performed, the Thespian Troupe's latest play was "Era of Talent", a variety show. The highlight of the show was "Fannie, the Farmer's Daughter", with Camille Dayton playing Fannie and Jerry Raab portraying her dear friend, Corbett Canfield. The Troupe's activities are not confined to the stage, however. Above right, two members, Stephanie Ewing and Jennifer French, helping adorn the tree which the Troupe supplied the school to spread Christmas Cheer.

Beginning a new tradition, South Putnam changed Homecoming festivities from the Basketball season to Football. The highlights of the homecoming celebration began with a float judging, chile supper, followed by the game itself. The queen chosen from among four candidates, was crowned during half-time by her escort. This year's reigning queen is Marty Parker, escorted by Doyle Williamson.
